

K-Learn: User Manual

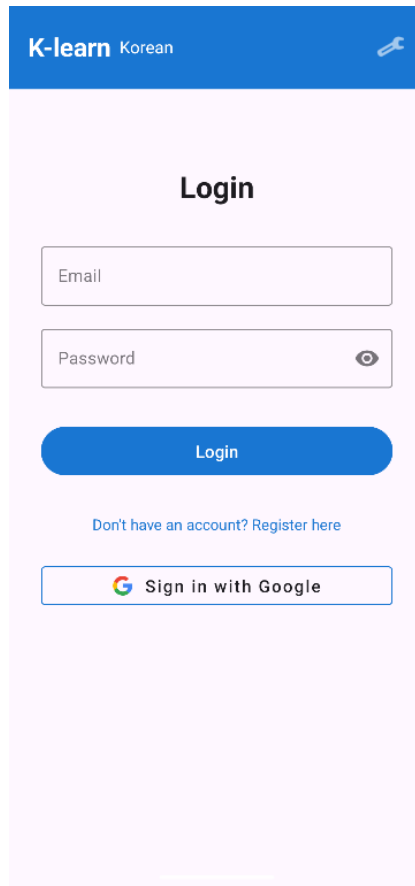

The image shows a mobile application interface for 'K-learn Korean'. At the top is a blue header bar with the text 'K-learn Korean' and a small icon. Below the header, the word 'Login' is centered in a bold, black font. Underneath 'Login' are two input fields: the first is labeled 'Email' and the second is labeled 'Password'. The 'Password' field has an eye icon to its right, which is currently closed. Below these fields is a large, rounded blue button with the word 'Login' in white. Under the button is a link that says 'Don't have an account? Register here'. At the bottom of the login section is a button with the Google logo and the text 'Sign in with Google'.

The image shows a mobile application interface for 'K-learn Korean'. At the top is a blue header with the text 'K-learn Korean'. Below the header, the word 'Register' is centered in a bold, black font. There are four input fields stacked vertically: 'Full Name', 'Email', 'Password', and 'Confirm Password'. Each field has a small eye icon to its right, indicating a toggle for password visibility. Below the input fields is a large, rounded blue button with the word 'Register' in white text. Underneath the button, there is a link that says 'Already have an account? Login here' in a smaller, blue font. The background of the page is a light pink color. At the very bottom, there is a thin horizontal line, likely representing the home indicator on an iPhone.
